Medicus Partners Chosen as Member of the 2007 “Dallas 100”

11.8.2007 - At an event co-founded by the Dallas Business Journal and the SMU Cox Business School - Caruth Institute for Entrepreneurship, Medicus Partners was named as one of the Dallas 100.

The “Dallas 100” Awards recognize the fastest growing, privately held companies in Dallas. Firms applying for the Dallas 100 Award must satisfy a number of requirements including a three year track record of sales growth with a minimum of $500,000 in sales in year one.

“Averaging over 68% per year in annual growth since starting the firm in 2001 has been exciting, but doing so without incurring any debt is what we’re most proud of,” said Jim Stone, Managing Partner. In the three years under consideration (2004-2006) by the Caruth Institute, Medicus Partners’ revenue grew by an average of 108.64%.

Bob Collins, who was one of two founders of the firm, added “It is particularly special for us to be recognized for this award in the company of our senior leadership group, without whom this would not be possible. We have been blessed to have great people.”

Medicus Partners remains focused on exceeding the expectations of its clients and its employees. By serving those who allow us to be successful, the company will continue to prosper.
