To Whom It May Concern:

Over the past 11 years as a hospital-based recruiter, I have rarely needed assistance from the outside in filling a search. This past summer however after searching for over a year for a urologist that we desperately needed, I decided to seek outside help. I knew that Bob Collins had started a new company called Medicus Partners and having worked with him successfully in the past, decided to give him a call.

I found Medicus Partners to be very professional, organized and thorough. The recruiter who was assigned to my search was most professional and able to produce excellent candidates in a short period resulting in the hiring of an excellent urologist who we are very pleased with. I will not hesitate to use Medicus Partners in the future when internal resources have been exhausted and the need dictates. Medicus Partners is a results oriented company and shares my desire to get the job done ethically and in a timely manner. I found their approach to be unique and refreshing and I would not hesitate to use them in the future when I'm in a bind.
