I am happy to provide you with a reference on the Medicus Firm. We have used them for nearly a year now and they've placed four hospitalists for us. Our recruiter, DeAndra Ransom, is persistent without being pushy which is helpful to me. She does not let candidates 'fall through the cracks' and keeps in regular contact with me via text, email and cell so that she can keep her word to them and get them answers. She is very realistic with her timelines and the types of candidates we can expect. The candidates I've worked with through her trust her very much. She screens candidates extremely well and knows what we are looking for and only presents us with those candidates that meet our criteria. This is our first retained search and we have been very pleased. I would definitely recommend you meet with them. Good luck and let me know if I can be a resource.

Sincerely,
