To Whom It May Concern:

I have worked with The Medicus Firm on several recruitment engagements over the past 5 years to help us attract physicians to our very fast growing medical group. Most recently they helped us attract a highly qualified Interventional Cardiologist. Being told by others that this could be a difficult search, I was a bit worried that we would be able to find the right candidate relative to our aggressive timeline. Within 5 months, they screened down to 8 qualified candidates that resulted in 4 on-site interviews and a fully executed employment agreement with a great candidate. We actually had the ability to be "picky" in finding the perfect fit to start this new service line. That is not always the case in recruitment to rural areas.

I could give similar stories relative to other recruitment engagements with Chad Rudel and Jason Farr. I get several calls a day from recruiters of various types wanting to secure our business, and have been burned by a few over the years. Bottom line, The Medicus Firm represents my organization well, and delivers on what they say they will do. I don't have to worry about the work they are doing or wonder how hard they are working for me. That is great piece of mind that allows me to stay big picture focused on group performance.

I highly recommend Chad Rudel and the Medicus Firm as a strategic partner in rural recruitment and glad to discuss if you have any questions at all.

Best,
