To Whom it May Concern,

I have been working with The Medicus Firm for several months now and am very pleased with the way they do business.

They have proven to be effective in sourcing candidates, appropriately screening them and presenting our location and in working with us throughout the process. They have been consistent in their communication with me and always keep me in the loop with what is going on in our searches.

They have already placed a neurologist with our hospital and we're close to signing a number of other candidates who they have found for us. The Medicus Firm promised a lot before we began working with them and they have delivered. I recommend them without hesitation. If you have any questions about why I've chosen them, please feel free to call me at (936) 558-3749.

Sincerely,

Patrick Ronaghan
Manager of Physician Services
