To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend The Medicus Firm and Jason Farr as outstanding partners in the entire recruiting process. Jason and his team provided their expertise in assessing practice needs, community needs, the ideal physician candidate and matching that candidate to the open position.

Their skills go beyond just finding a candidate – they find the highest level of candidate in expertise, personality and professionalism. The candidates presented to us by The Medicus Firm are well informed of our community, our hospital and the practice opportunity. As compared to candidates sourced from other recruiting firms, the level of candidates we have received from The Medicus Firm has been outstanding.

The Medicus Firm made me a hero to my administrative team! In the first six months of taking the physician recruiter position, all of my recruiting goals were met. I recommend this organization to any healthcare provider in need of a recruiting firm that provides proven, personalized results.

Sincerely,
