To Whom It May Concern:

Recruiting relationships, just like all successful relationships, require constant communication, a desire to understand, and perseverance through the difficult times. I am extremely pleased with the recruiting team from The Medicus Firm as they were not only knowledgeable of the national physician candidate market, but also worked hard to understand our organization and what we are looking for in a provider.

Recruiting primary care physicians to rural locations is harder than it has ever been due to the changing dynamics in healthcare, and especially the acute shortage of primary care. Although we did not strike lighting in a bottle with instant success, I'm happy to say that TMF persisted in their efforts to secure a quality, well-screened candidate, that ended up being a great match for our organization.

Our recruiter, Brandon Boyd has truly become an extension of our team and I am happy to say that he came through for us with flying colors. TMF remains our trusted partner in recruiting those "hard-to-fill" specialties and I whole heartedly recommend them to anyone looking for a reputable recruiting firm to partner with.

With best regards,
