

To whom it may concern

I am pleased to take the opportunity to recommend the Medicus Firm, and especially Rob Clarke for help with your physician recruiting efforts. It's a very challenging market right now for Primary Care Physicians. Our hospital and clinics are located in a beautiful setting, in a wonderful community and still it is hard to find qualified candidates to apply. I have been working with several recruiters with mixed results, and we are fortunate to have secured a physician through the Medicus Firm. Rob has been very attentive to our needs throughout the entire process. It has been a pleasure to work with the Medicus Firm.

Best Wishes,
